No More of Them

A resolution has been adopted by the Legislature instructing Oregon Senators to use all their exertions to secure more land grants for sundry military roads. Of course they'll do it. It is as well be understood at once that these humbug classes of land grabbers have had their day. Not another grant will ever be asked for to build a military road. And Congress ought to declare all the grants of this description in Oregon forfeited on the ground that the parties receiving them have constructed no roads. Every scheme of the sort has been a swindle, and an outrage. Millions of acres of land have been thrown into the hands of speculators and no good has resulted to the State therefrom. Grants of land should be reserved for such enterprises as will develop and be of practical benefit to the country. Can any one tell what good has resulted to Oregon from the donation of the millions of acres that have fallen into the hands of these military road corporation humbugs? This thing will stop where it is now. Greedy speculators supported by the present Democratic-anti-monopoly Legislature, who are organized and waiting to receive the new grants which our Senators are instructed to secure, may as well prepare to go into some other business. Congress will not award these swindling schemes promptly.

Repudiation Affirmed

The subpoened proceedings took place in the House on Tuesday.

Mr. Whalley offered the following:

WHEREAS, The late Democratic convention resolved in favor of "equitable adjustment" of the public debt of the United States, and—

WHEREAS, It is claimed that such "equitable adjustment" means repudiation of such debt, and that the late general election was a decision to that effect, therefore be it—

Resolved, By the House, the Senate concurring, that the people of the State of Oregon are opposed to the violation of any contract which the General Government has made with its creditors, or to any repudiation of the public debt by the United States.

Mr. Alexander—I move that the resolution be laid on the table promptly.

The motion was prevailed by a party vote.

It will be seen that the doctrine of repudiation has been affirmed by the Democratic majority in the Legislature. That majority has rejected a resolution declaring that the people of Oregon opposed repudiation. It has thus devised that the triumph it won last June was won on a pledge to "violate the contract which the General Government has made with its creditors," and to repudiate the national debt. In this way does bed rock Democracy display itself.

A circular has just been issued by Treasurer Spinner to the banks and bankers of the country, calling upon them to send in all Government greenbacks of issue previous to 1869, and have them replaced by issue of the series of 1869, as he desires to retire the old notes thereby facilitating trade and baffling counterfeiters. The express charges for forwarding the old and returning the new issues will be paid by the Government. Greenbacks or legal-tenders of the issue of 1869 or the new fractional currency will be supplied as persons may desire. Old notes will be exchanged at the Sub-Treasury or Government depositories, or may be sent to the Treasury Department for redemption.

The number of members chosen for the next Congress, so far, is seventy-five. According to returns furnished by the telegraphic dispatches, fifty-one of the seventy-five are Republicans, and the remaining twenty-four are Democrats. The Democratic gain, thus far, seems to be seven. Their Congressional Committee claimed, in the States that up to this time have held elections, a gain of nineteen. The Republican majority in the next Congress will be from forty to fifty. If it should be less it would be far more healthful for the party than the great, unwieldy and sometimes discontent majority we have had for two years.

According to the various census returns received at Washington, it is roughly estimated that the final result will show a population in all the States of upwards of 41,000,000, some 10,000,000 more than in 1860. Though the figures as they will constitute the official report may not be strictly accurate in every respect they will at all events, be near enough to the actual facts for all practical purposes. Particulars concerning agriculture, manufactures etc., will be included in the forthcoming report, and will make it an invaluable statistical document.

O. W. Caldwell, Democratic nominee for Congress in Nevada, has withdrawn from the canvass and the ticket. The State Committee has offered the nomination to Hill Beachy. It is understood that the cause of Kendall's withdrawal was his disinclination to pay a heavy assessment for campaign purposes with a knowledge that there was little or no probability of an election.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil says of Oregon's new Senator: "The Legislature of Oregon has elected Col J K Kelly to succeed Geo H Williams as United States Senator from and after the 4th of March 1871. This is an accession to Democratic numbers in the Senate but no material advantage to the Democratic strength in that body."

Californians have been boasting that their State has 600 000 inhabitants. But the Sacramento Union says the completed census will show no more than 500 000 including Chinese and Indians. California therefore will gain no Congressmen under the new apportionment.

A bill has passed the Assembly to tax the stocks of National Banks in this State but we hear that it is so bunglingly drawn as to be inoperative. The stock of National Banks that is to say, United States securities, can not be taxed but the shares of the Banks may be.

CURRENT NOTES

General Frank Blair is a Democratic candidate for member of the Missouri Legislature from St Louis.

The Los Angeles News of the 7th instant says that Chief Engineer Ives has completed the survey of the Southern Pacific Railroad from Gilroy to that way, and that the prospects are that the work of construction will soon be commenced on the road.

We find the following among the standing advertisements in the Meadville (Pa.) Republican:

"Cupid and Hyman—The little brown cottage at Cambridge, Pa. is the place to call to have the marriage knot promptly and strongly tied. Inquire for Rev S J Whitcomb."

It is said to be definitely settled that ex President Johnson is to run for Congress in the Fifth District of Tennessee, against Roderick R Butler, whose name was connected with the sale of cadetships and, latter with pension frauds. It is to be presumed that Mr Johnson will be elected, in which case he will probably "run against" another Butler.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

SALEM, Wednesday, [illegible]

A BATTLE ROYAL—A WARM EVENING.

Yesterday the elements were stirred. I have already told you of the war of words and the slaughter of innocents, in the senate. The House and lobby were in a ferment during the evening session till the bill to overcome the 400 Republican majority of Portland was passed. Then the remonstrating element here from your county did some deep damning that night, and they with the Oro Fino Democracy and their friends went out on a bust or two, somewhat mixed drinks and whiskey straight. The orgies were kept up till the wee sma' hours, much to the profit of Pium Bob Bean and others—dispensers of liquid refreshments at all hours, and in all styles. The Portland delegation did the handsome thing in the way of standing treat to everybody. They could well afford it for Portland don't go Democratic only once in a while, and such a victory as they achieved last night (with only 20 votes wiping out a majority of 400) was worth getting drunk over. The fever heat, however, which seemed to be upon all men yesterday has passed away today. The senate has got to work very much in a business way, and the Portland lobby Democracy has gone to work in earnest to get the offices and the spoils under the new regime. If Grover dies under the pressure the life insurance agents will probably want to know who he has smoked out on the square, or merely shuffled off as a trick to escape the Portland gimlets. The House, too, has been rather quiet to-day, and disposed to dig out from under the great pile of bills on its calendar. So after much wind there is likely to be some work.

WHAT HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED.

Up to the end of the fifth week of the session the amount of business finished would not make a very formidable record. Even the man whose pen was poor and whose ink was pale might have contemplated the job of writing down the inventory with cheerfulness and resignation. Let's see: there was the appropriation bill, the extra postage, the extra pay to clerks, seven Republicans turned out and seven Democrats elected to fill their places, and—after that not much else. During the last three days, however, the list has grown somewhat—several Democratic officers have been provided with better pay, several Democratic friends on the outside have obtained relief in the shape of remittances or refundments, and several bills looking to an easement of the ills to which Democrats of various persuasions and places have hitherto been subject, have been passed or "fixed to go through." The purity of elections has been definitely secured by the agreement to pass Whitcaker's purifyer, and the prompt rejection of Davenport's bill to provide against the appointment of judges all of one political faith. These and a few other unimportant matters having been accomplished there remains but little more to be done to immortalize this Legislature as the hardest working (!) the most unpartisan (!) and the most conscientious (!) body ever convened on Oregon soil.

HOW PERSEVERANCE WILL WIN.

The oldest inhabitant can hardly remember so far back as when B F Bonham began boring for a claim for back pay as Territorial and State Librarian. If any of the people then living are still alive, they will be rejoiced to learn that persistence has at last met its reward, and the boring has ceased—the borer has struck it! The Senate to-day passed a House bill appropriating $543 57 to pay Bonham's claim. Whether this is the end of it or not cannot be known during the present generation. It was supposed that the claim had been settled in 1862, when it was only about $54 00, and when the Legislature, after a thorough investigation of the claim, allowed him about $16 00. Not so however Bonham had served as Librarian under the Territorial government when the United States paid for such services $250 per annum. The Territorial Legislature raised the salary to $500 but the United States Treasurer failing to see the power of the Legislature to enact laws for his guidance refused to pay more than had been authorized by Congress—$250 per year. Bonham's claim against the State is to recover $250 a year for the time served, to make up the $500 a year which the Territorial Legislature had directed the United States to pay but which the Territory never expected or intended to pay. His claim in 1862 was against the State to recover at the rate of $500 per year for the time he served under the State government. His claim, as I have said above, was only $54 00 and the Legislature allowed about $16 00. Afterward he tried to sue the State to recover $250 per year for the time he had served under the Territorial government, but failed to make his suit stick. The claim was before the last Legislature, for something over $800 if I mistake not, but it again failed. To explain how it now comes to be exactly $543 57 it will be necessary to explain somewhat another business transaction which Mr Bonham had with the State. In 1860, or thereabouts, he borrowed certain sums of coin of the school fund giving therefor, his personal promises to pay, with interest at 10 per cent per annum. In 1865 Mr Bonham then being at La Grande received an invitation from the Secretary to pungle this coin—principal and interest, amounting to about $700. He did not however pungle, but gave an additional promise to pay the next spring. I am now giving the substance of Mr Bonham's explanation as he gave it to the Senate, to day. In the spring when he came down, suit had been begun against him, and he then assigned to pay off the debt in greenbacks, then worth 65 cents on the dollar. So that got off with about $455, saving to the benefit of his own pocket, $245, nom. Mr Bonham did not go into this part of the transaction so particularly as this. He said that his' excuse for greenbacking the school fund, was that the State owed him and refused to pay, and he thought it right to get even as nearly as possible. So it will be seen, that he is the real original parient of the "equitable adjustment" idea. In making up his bill against the State in 1870 however, Mr Bonham exercised a spirit of fairness and regard for equity, which must forever do him credit. He calculated what the State owed him (looking at the matter from his stand point) magnanimously omitting to charge any interest then he calculated what the State had lost by the greenback operation, magnanimously cyphering up the interest. Then the State owed him so much, and he owed the State so much. Taking the lesser sum (Bonham Dr.) from the greater (the State Dr.) the exact sum of $543 57 was found to be the equitable balance due from the State to the long suffering but persistent ex Librarian. This sum was given him by the bill passed to day, and Bonham is happy, albeit the Treasury is robbed. Mr Cochran said he had met the claim every session he had been here since 1860 (or 1862) that he had examined into its foundation and that he had never believed it due and that he still thought it ought not to be paid, though he was tempted to vote for it to get rid of the everlasting "teasing."

PERSONAL.

There is a tolerably strong delegation here from Portland, in addition to the regular lobby members. There are Hallock, very busy; Alexander, very smiling; John Henry Smith very idle; Ben Norden, very jolly, but anxious; Lappeus very retund and in excellent humor; Joe Teal, very noisy; S Pennoyer the guest of the Senate; Charles Knowles with a black eye to illustrate the state of affairs in Portland (the latter I only guess at,) and several others all full of business or something else. By the way, Charley says I did him injustice in saying that he came here to look after the Police Bill. He says his business is altogether of a private character and I guess that is so.

AN OUTSIDE INCIDENTAL JOB.

A Bill was introduced to day by Mr Burch for the relief of Grant county. It recites in substance, whereas that Grant county has lost its public Buildings by fire and largely of its revenues by the operation of the N W h Amendment and then enacts that the State Treasurer shall receive the sum of $2 611 05 now due as State ax from Grant county. You will see by inspecting the relative size of the figures that the arrangement is for the State and the county to go "snucks"—half and half—in a sum of money which belongs to the State. It is generous and indulgent toward Grant but how will the other counties like it?

CARL BOSCO'S GREAT HAT TRICK!

OREGON

The Salem Unionist says that the fire bell that now where it stands now may be useful for like purposes when it can be rung loud enough to disturb anybody in Salem.

From the Eugene Journal: Hon A J Campbell, of this city who died at home last Saturday was one of the old pioneers of this country and a member of the Constitutional Convention of this State.

A remarkable meteor was seen from Forest Grove from Oregon City and several other places on the morning of the 15th inst at 5 o'clock. Then it resembled the report of a cannon, followed by a rolling sound like that of thunder. It was very bright, almost equaling the brightness of the sun.

The business done at the Aurora Restaurant on the Fair Ground last week, was as follows:

Monday	$ 65
Tuesday	410 00
Wednesday	50 00
Thursday	1 15 05
Friday	1 1 0
Saturday	500 00
Total	$2 230 50

This with the regular boarders, will make the receipts over $5 000, or over 10 000 meals served during the week.

From the Jacksonville Sentinel of last Tuesday night a man by the name of Henry Baily stabbed Richard H Moore in the back just below the left shoulder the knife blade thence glancing in the direction of the right arm pit inflicting an ugly, but it is thought not dangerous wound. He also struck Moore on the head with a stone, causing quite a wound. The Marshal came up and rescued Moore, who was already faint from loss of blood, and took him to the Franco American hotel where he still lies. Baily was arrested the next morning and bound over for an assault with intent to kill. Baily's jealousy of his wife is the alleged cause.

CARL BOSCO'S GREAT HAT TRICK!

The remarkable proprietor of Brown's Bonanzatic Tanzers have been thoroughly tested since first introduced. The demand for them has steadily increased and proved upon their own merits, they have found favor with those who, from pulmonary Bronchial or Asthmatic complaints require them. For Coughs and Colds they are efficacious.
